Fill your rooms with inspiration & their minds with curiosity

To a young child, a learning environment isn't just a space, it's a wondrous world to be discovered.

We're here to help you ensure that world is thoughtfully designed, educationally sound and filled with the right items to engage them—from storage and soft seating to carpets, dramatic play, literacy, science, and more.

Early Childhood education has countless benefits

Helping little learners take their first steps into this world of education has benefits that last a lifetime.

From Kindergarten readiness to future success in school and beyond, early childhood education can help:

- Reduce achievement gaps
- Boost cognitive, behavioral, & social skills development
- Enhance language development and motor skills
- Improve attendance and long-term (academic) achievement
- Promote brain development & a life-long love of learning
- Nurture confidence, problem solving, & critical thinking

so does working with School Specialty

All our products and designs are developed with a dedicated team of Early Childhood Subject Matter Experts, learning space design experts, product specialists, and local sales partners who know your district and school objectives.

That's why you can count on every learning environment to:
