SOFT SEATING CAN SUPPORT YOUR INSTRUCTIONAL PRACTICE

When designing educational spaces, consider integrating soft seating to help make the space inviting, exciting, and engaging for students.

Soft seating is a great way to provide students with more than just a traditional chair, wobble stool, and desk. Research suggests that students who sit for extended periods in traditional desks and have limited movement throughout their school day are at risk for disengaging from learning and having increases in poor behavior.¹

Beyond the benefits of providing more dynamic seating, soft seating can transform classrooms, media centers, collaborative spaces, and even outdoor classrooms into spaces that invite students to get comfortable and really engage in their learning.

Experts agree “when designed and used effectively, flexible learning spaces provide learning environments where students can experience increased autonomy to make a variety of choices about their learning in a way that fosters self-regulation, collaboration, and interaction, while ensuring their wellbeing.”²

We know that for students to take ownership of their learning, we must provide spaces that support them and encourage them to actively engage. Teachers also need to be engaged in the environment. When they are engaged and see the environment as a tool for their own success and the success of their students, their self-efficacy also rises.³

When creating soft seating areas throughout the school, there are five zones that should be considered:

Taking all this into consideration, how can soft seating help to create a positive impact? And what instructional strategies can teachers apply to help support this impact?

Teaching techniques, partnered with the use of these teaching zones, allow teachers to encourage active engagement in students and provide a way to make learning fun for all. Soft seating is the ideal setting for these types of activities because they provide students with a comfortable place to engage with their learning and create an environment that is inviting and exciting for all students.

Instructional and design experts from School Specialty® studied a range of factors that contribute to effective learning environments and identified Six Essential Design Elements® that should be incorporated for both the physical and the instructional environment: choice, connection, comfort, stimulation, versatility, and technology. More can be learned about how to incorporate these elements at SchoolSpecialty.com/projects-by-design

LIMITED LIFETIME WARRANTY

What Does This Warranty Cover?

This warranty covers substantial defects in a Classroom Select® product's material or workmanship, with some exceptions that are stated below.

What Does this Warranty Not Cover?

This warranty does not cover damage, or product failure, from: normal wear and tear, misuse, negligence, acts of God, abuse, accidents, vandalism, freight damage, failure to follow instructions, improper installation, failure to perform routine inspection or required maintenance service, transport from one site or location to another, alterations to the product not expressly authorized by School Specialty®, or from any causes having an origin other than in the material or manufacture of the product. Also, consequential and incidental damages are not recoverable under this warranty. Some states do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, so this limitation or exclusion may not apply to you.

Some natural variations occurring in polypropylene, laminate, hard plastic or other natural materials are inherent to their character and are not considered defects. The colorfastness and the matching of colors, grains, or textures of these materials are not covered under this warranty. The products are intended for interior use. Exterior use of any of the products voids this warranty.

What is Period of Coverage?

The period of coverage is for as long as the original purchaser owns the product, with the following exceptions:

PRODUCT, MATERIAL, OR MECHANISM	Period of Coverage From Date of Purchase
Cafeteria tables: torsion bars and frames	16 Years
Pneumatic seating controls and cylinders, glides, casters, chroming, and polymer-based components	5 Years
Seating control mechanisms, foam, mesh materials and seating	5 Years
File slides and locks	5 Years
Panel and tackboard textiles and keyboard mechanisms	5 Years
Laminate surfaces and other covering material	3 Years

Coverage terminates if you sell or otherwise transfer the product

What Classroom Select® Products are Included?

All Classroom Select® products purchased from School Specialty® on or after January 1, 2014.

What Will School Specialty® Do to Correct Problems?

If the product's material or workmanship is defective, School Specialty® will, at its sole discretion, do one of the following:

- replace the product; or
- repair the product on site; or
- repair the product at the manufacturer's facility; or
- return the product's purchase price — minus depreciation.

If the product is no longer manufactured by Classroom Select®, School Specialty® may substitute a comparable product for replacement.

If School Specialty® takes action to correct a defect, School Specialty® will not renew or extend this warranty to a repaired or replaced product. School Specialty® will not honor the attempted transfer of this warranty.

How Do You Contact School Specialty®?

Products believed to be defective must be reported to School Specialty® promptly. You should contact your School Specialty® representative. If your School Specialty® representative is unavailable or unable to provide service you should:

Are There Any Limitations On Other Warranties?

Yes, the period of coverage for implied warranties, including warranties of merchantability and warranties of fitness for a particular purpose, are limited to the same period of coverage of this warranty. Some states do not allow limitations on how long an implied warranty lasts, so this limitation may not apply to you.

How Does State Law Apply?

This warranty gives you specific legal rights, and you may also have other rights which vary from state to state.

GREENGUARD® GOLD CERTIFICATION

While poor indoor air quality affects everyone, children are especially at risk. This is because their immune and neurological systems are still developing, and they breathe in a greater volume of air than adults relative to their body mass.

This is just one reason why School Specialty® is committed to achieving Greenguard® Gold Certification for a number of our products. When a product carries the Greenguard® Gold Certification mark, parents and educators can be assured it meets one of the most stringent chemical emission standards in the world.
